I was prescribed with Dexamethasone for my altitude illness. At that time I was working above 13000 feet above the sea level and I felt myself terrible uncomfortable. The medication does wonders - in a couple of minutes after taking a single dose you are no longer short of breath. I haven't noticed any side effects, only mild nausea, but it can not be considered a side effect, as I was vomiting all the time during my work. And Dexamethasone turned to be a salvation. Excellent medication for extreme situations.
